Judgment—Page 4 of 6

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

1. The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample from the defendant as directed by the probation officer.
  2. The defendant shall submit to a warrantless search of person, residence, vehicle, personal effects, place of employment, and other property by a federal probation or pretrial services officer or other law enforcement officer, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or a violation of a condition of supervision. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation.
  3. The defendant shall not possess a firearm, destructive device, or other weapon.
  4. The defendant shall not own or possess a camera, any photographic device, and/or equipment (including video recording equipment), without the written approval of the probation officer.
  5. The defendant shall not possess or use a computer or cellular telephone with access to any on-line service at any time (including employment) without prior written approval from the probation officer. This includes access through any Internet service provider, bulletin board system, e-mail system, or any public or private computer network system. The defendant shall permit routine inspection of his/her computer system or any other computer system maintained at the defendant's residence to include hard drives and any media storage materials, to confirm adherence to this condition. The inspection shall be no more intrusive than is necessary to ensure compliance with the defendant's conditions of supervision. The defendant shall inform his/her employer, or other third party who may be impacted by this condition, of this computer-related restriction and the computer inspection provisions of the condition.
  6. The defendant shall have no contact with any person under the age of 18 years nor attempt contact except under circumstances approved in advance and in writing by the probation officer in consultation with the defendant's treatment provider.
  7. The defendant shall not seek employment, engage in leisure activities or loiter near places designated primarily for minors such as schools, parks, and arcades, which may bring the defendant into contact with any person under the age of 18 years. Contact is defined as any transaction occurring face to face, over the telephone, via mail, over the internet, and any third party communication.
  8. The defendant shall not be employed in any capacity which may cause the defendant to come in direct contact with children, except under circumstances approved in advance by the supervising probation officer. The defendant shall not participate in any volunteer activity that may cause the defendant to come into direct contact with children, except under circumstances approved in advance by the defendant's probation officer.
  9. The defendant shall not possess any material showing sexually explicit conduct deemed inappropriate by his probation officer and/or treatment provider, or patronize any place where such material or entertainment is available.
  10. The defendant shall conform with sex offender registration laws and other laws which exist in any jurisdiction where he resides or visits, within 24 hours of release on supervision or any change in circumstances.
  11. The defendant shall submit to a warrantless search of person, residence, vehicle, personal effects, place of employment, and other property by a federal probation or pretrial services officer or other law enforcement officer, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband, a violation of a condition of supervision, or a violation of law. Contraband includes but is not limited too, any computers, electronic media, videotapes, CD's, DVD's, Zip drives, PDA's or other electronic media storage device that may include images of child pornography. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation.
  12. The defendant shall participate in a program of sex offender assessment and treatment, as directed by the probation officer, until such time as he/she is released from the program. This assessment and treatment may include physiological testing such as polygraph and penile plethysmograph to assist in planning, case monitoring, and supervision. At the direction of the probation officer, the defendant may be required to pay for all or a portion of any treatment program. Any refusal to submit to such assessment or tests as scheduled is a violation of the conditions of release. The defendant shall waive his right of confidentiality in treatment and sign any necessary releases for any records imposed as a consequence of this judgment to allow the supervising United States Probation Officer to review the defendant's course of treatment and progress with the treatment provider(s).

CRIMINAL MONETARY PENALTIES

The defendant must pay the total criminal monetary penalties under the schedule of payments on Sheet 6.

	Assessment	Fine	Restitution
TOTALS	$ 100.00	$	$

- The determination of restitution is deferred until _____. An Amended Judgment in a Criminal Case (AO 245C) will be entered after such determination.
- The defendant must make restitution (including community restitution) to the following payees in the amount listed below.

If the defendant makes a partial payment, each payee shall receive an approximately proportioned payment, unless specified otherwise in the priority order or percentage payment column below. However, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3664(i), all nonfederal victims must be paid before the United States is paid.

Name of Payee	Total Loss*	Restitution Ordered	Priority or Percentage
TOTALS	$ _____ 0	$ _____ 0

- Restitution amount ordered pursuant to plea agreement $ _____
- The defendant must pay interest on restitution and a fine of more than $2,500, unless the restitution or fine is paid in full before the fifteenth day after the date of the judgment, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(f). All of the payment options on Sheet 6 may be subject to penalties for delinquency and default, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(g).
- The court determined that the defendant does not have the ability to pay interest and it is ordered that:
  - the interest requirement is waived for the  fine  restitution.
  - the interest requirement for the  fine  restitution is modified as follows:

* Findings for the total amount of losses are required under Chapters 109A, 110, 110A, and 113A of Title 18 for offenses committed on or after September 13, 1994, but before April 23, 1996.
